

Food Safety Is Good Business

News headlines tell the story every day. Today's consumer has never been more aware of the risks associated with handling and preparing food.

Public concern about food safety has never been greater. And each highly publicized incident of foodborne illness brings attention to our industry's commitment to serving safe food.

Food Safety Certification Program

Workers certified under the ServSafe® program protect your establishment from foodborne illness, while reducing liability risk & improving food quality.

The Colorado Restaurant Association Education Fund delivers ServSafe® Food Safety training to Colorado's restaurant and foodservice industry.

ServSafe® is a program of the National Restaurant Association Educational Foundation. The Manager Certification course is a 1-day immersion course, offering basic food safety concepts. This program has a certification exam; passage of the exam is acceptable in 95% of American jurisdictions with a training requirement.
